

term including any tuition charge over 17 credits.

No, the benefit applies only to the pursuit of a Bachelor's degree.

No, the benefit is intended for undergraduate programs only.

Yes, as long as it is their first Bachelor's degree from Rowan University. The policy states "Under this program, students are eligible for 130 credits of support, or until receiving their first Baccalaureate _____".

Yes, according to the policy "Children who were born to, or adopted by, the spouse or domestic partner of the employee but who have not been adopted by the employee (i.e., stepchildren) are also eligible for this program, provided that they are declared dependents on the employee's tax returns."