Academic Probation (For GPA Falling Below 2.0)

At the end of each Spring semester, matriculated undergraduate students who have attempted 15 credits or more and have a cumulative GPA below 2.0 are placed on academic probation. This probationary period begins with the Fall semester. Students have one academic year in which to achieve a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0. Those who have not attained a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 by this time will be dismissed from the university.

The College Deans will notify students in writing when they are dismissed. The notices will include a statement that registration for the next semester will be canceled.

Students so dismissed cannot register in either academic year or summer terms, asfull or part-time students, nor as non-matriculated students.

Students who have been academically dismissed from the University may apply for readmission through the Admissions Office after one academic year following dismissed.

Students who have been academically dismissed may not participate in extra-curricular or co-curricular activities sponsored by the university.

remain on academic restriction status for more than one academic year (Fall/ Spring semesters). Students who are not removed from academic restriction after one academic year are subject to dismissal from the university. Exceptions may be made for special programs (e.g., EOF, Specialized Services).
