he Gap - university status as reported in the Educational Trust Fund Gap Report) are accomplishing their mission. A suggestion is to hold at least one joint meeting during FY16-17 with the Senate Retention Committee inviting Dr. McElwee to review progress, and brainstorming additional strategies necessary to decreasing the gap.

3. The Committee has hosted many outstanding speakers on relevant topics over its short duration. Building in a small budget supported by the Senate to support the annual sponsorship of a diversity topic selected by the committee would insure the institutionalization of such an event. As a start, funding could be used that previously supported the Excellence in Diversity faculty/staff plaques.
