

2. Established a new award to include the medical schools: Excellence in Diversity for the Study or Practice of Medicine.
3. Circulated the call for nominations, established an awards selection subcommittee; reviewed nominations; selected winners for all 7 categories; designed, ordered, and delivered plaques; highlighted winners via Rowan Announcer and DEI Division Blog; and coordinated with organizers of faculty and students awards events around the university
4. Articulated policies and procedures for the awards
 1. Developed award descriptions, protocol, and procedures
 2. Suggested ongoing partnership with DEI Summit organizers to feature award winners there going forward
