integration requests during the duration of the Spring 2021 semester. Frequent meetings each semester to review new Third Party Canvas Integration requests will need to continue with the 2021-2022 Technological Resources Committee per the policy.

3.

2. Since the committee cannot yet provide a comprehensive recommendation about the growing problem of add on fees until we get an official definition and an official process, we still want to recommend all faculty reconsider any “add on” for a course where the burden of cost falls on students directly and/or
