NEW LETTER OF AGREEMENT – NON-TENURED TEACHING FACULTY

Non-tenured Teaching Faculty

Non-tenured teaching faculty (hereinafter referred to as NTTF) have the primary responsibility of teaching, or supervising clinical experiences or internships. Duties and responsibilities shall not include scholarship, research, or creative activity.

The total number of NTTF appointed shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the regular full-time faculty lines at a College/University. Prior to each academic year, the College/University shall consult with the Local Union regarding the number of planned NTTF appointments.

NTTF shall not be eligible to participate in personnel/peer committees, but can participate on search committees as they relate to their instructional responsibilities. However, NTTF may participate in general College/University affairs or on curriculum or assessment committees relative to their teaching or supervisory responsibilities.

Teaching Load

Teaching load for a NTTF shall be a maximum of twenty-four (24) teaching credit hours for ten (10) month positions and thirty (30) teaching credit hours for twelve (12) month positions. Other duties may be assigned in lieu of the credit load. Clinical or student supervision assignments can also be made in lieu of teaching. During the period of instruction NTTF shall be present on campus as necessary to their professional responsibilities and shall also be accessible to students, faculty and staff colleagues through whatever normal, electronic, telephonic or written modes they find most convenient during the academic year.
