

Presented policies

1. The first policy is the 'no alcohol' policy. This policy states that no alcohol is allowed on campus. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found with alcohol on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

2. The second policy is the 'no smoking' policy. This policy states that no smoking is allowed on campus. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a clean and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found smoking on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

3. The third policy is the 'no drugs' policy. This policy states that no drugs are allowed on campus. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found with drugs on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

4. The fourth policy is the 'no weapons' policy. This policy states that no weapons are allowed on campus. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found with a weapon on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

5. The fifth policy is the 'no hazing' policy. This policy states that no hazing is allowed on campus. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found participating in hazing will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

Transition criteria reasons

1. The first reason for transition is the 'no alcohol' policy. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found with alcohol on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

2. The second reason for transition is the 'no smoking' policy. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a clean and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found smoking on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

3. The third reason for transition is the 'no drugs' policy. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found with drugs on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

4. The fourth reason for transition is the 'no weapons' policy. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found with a weapon on campus will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.

5. The fifth reason for transition is the 'no hazing' policy. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff. The purpose of this policy is to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all students and staff. The policy is enforced by the campus police and the student body. Any student found participating in hazing will be suspended for a minimum of one semester. This policy is supported by the majority of students and staff.